

GREEK FIGHTERS TAKE THOUSANDS OF ROMAN ARMY

Capture of Koritza in Albania Reported by High Command

(By The Associated Press)
Frontier dispatches said Greek mountain fighters today entered the city of Koritza, in Albania, and captured thousands of the 30,000 Italian troops under siege there.

The reported seizure—if true—marked the first major victory in the 10-day-old Balkan conflict, and presumably disrupted the Italian supply route for a projected invasion into western Macedonia.

Greece's high command said retreating Italian troops were shelled by their own tanks as Greek warriors stormed and captured hill fortifications guarding Koritza.

A Greek communique said many Italian prisoners were taken in the battle on the Koritza heights, along with artillery, howitzers and machine-guns.

The Greeks declared their lines were holding firmly on both ends of the 100-mile front, despite the superiority of Italian arms and manpower.

Premier Mussolini's high command reported that fascist invasion forces had driven off Greek attacks between Lake Presba and Kapesia Pass, in the north, after violent fighting.

Real Attack Coming

Authoritative quarters in London said the Italians had not yet launched their main offensive against Greece, but that the real attack was to be expected at any moment—probably in the Kalamas river front, above Ioannina (Janina) in northwest Greece.

British R. A. F. warplanes bombed the Naples area in southern Italy during the night, the fascist high command disclosed, killing 14 persons and wounding 10. It was the third raid on Naples in less than a week.

Other R. A. F. bombers struck punishing blows at the big German naval base at Emden, the London air ministry reported, starting 30 spectacular fires among petroleum tanks there and heavily bombing shipyards at Bremerhaven and Bremen.

R. A. F. night raiders also pounded the German-held forts across the English channel at Boulogne, Calais, Dunkerque, Antwerp and Flushing.

London itself underwent the longest night air-raid alarm of the war, with "honest" Nazi flyers dropping overhead from dusk yesterday until the all-clear signal finally sounded at 8:30 a. m.—a foretaste of what may be in store for the bomb-scarred capital in the long winter nights ahead.

Next week's English nights will lengthen to approximately 14 hours.

Italian Blockade Extended

In the wake of Prime Minister Winston Churchill's grave comment yesterday on British shipping losses, indications arose of a possible extension of the German blockade of British shipping.

The fate of a British convoy attacked by a German raider in mid-Atlantic was undetermined, with no further word from the 16,698-ton passenger liner Rangitiki and the freighter Cornish City after their radio distress call yesterday that they were "being gunned" by an enemy ship of the "Admiral Graf Spee" class.

Shipping men said both of Germany's remaining pocket battleships, the Luetow and Admiral Scheer, have been rumored operating in Atlantic waters.

Coincidentally, the German high command asserted that 7,160,200 tons of enemy shipping had been sunk by British warcraft since the outbreak of the war 14 months ago.

In the Balkan struggle, the fascist high command by implication acknowledged that the Greeks had seized the offensive in the Koritza sector, reporting that the Italian air force had swept in to action to help repel Greek columns attacking along the "southern branches of Lake Presba," 15 miles northeast of Koritza.

Greeks Prepare Attack

Dispatches from Yugoslavia said the Greeks were shelling Koritza as a preliminary to a direct attack to capture the city.

Willkie Takes Lead In His Native Indiana

Indianapolis, Nev. 6.—(AP)—A see-saw struggle for Indiana's 14 electoral votes swung early today toward Wendell L. Willkie, native son, but Democratic candidates led in contests for governor and other state offices.

Returns from 3,064 of the state's 3,898 precincts gave Willkie 735,175 against 719,950 for President Roosevelt, a slender margin of 10,855 votes for the Republican.

Senator Sherman Minton, New Deal Democrat, dropped behind his Republican opponent, Raymond E. Willis, in the senatorial contest, but the Democratic state ticket, headed by Henry F. Schrickler, gubernatorial nominee, clung to small leads.

The 65-year-old Willis, Angola publisher, led Minton, 63, 987 to 634,011, in returns from 2,612 precincts.

Draft Director to Speak Here Armistice Day

Paul G. Armstrong, chairman of all draft boards in the state of Illinois, will be the principal speaker at the Armistice Day program to be held in the Dixon high school auditorium next Monday morning.

Fifteen civic organizations will be represented in the parade which will start from the American Legion hall at 9:30 o'clock. Line of march has been designated south on Peoria avenue to Second street, east on Second street to Galena avenue, north on Galena avenue to First street, west on First street to Peoria avenue, and north on Peoria avenue to the high school.

The exercises at the school will begin at 10 o'clock with a selection by the high school band. In order of the program, roll call will follow the invocation. Group singing of "God Bless America" will be led by Miss Carolyn Bergstedt, member of the faculty.

Leaders of organizations will be introduced and American Legion Commander Clyde Lenox will introduce Mr. Armstrong who will deliver the principal address.

At 10:50 the audience will assemble on the high school grounds for military salute and the national anthem by the Dixon Municipal band.

William Haefliger is chairman in charge of the program and parade.

Illinois Voters Endorse FDR by 100,000 Plurality

By W. W. HERCHER
Chicago, Nov. 6.—(AP)—Unofficial returns from a substantial majority of the state's precincts indicated today that Illinois had endorsed a third term for President Roosevelt by a plurality of approximately 100,000 votes.

Returns from 7,805 of the state's 8,378 precincts gave Roosevelt 1,995,758 to 1,865,967 for Wendell L. Willkie, the Republican nominee.

The President piled up his biggest stack of votes in the Democratic stronghold of Cook county (Chicago), where returns from 4,215 of 4,389 precincts gave him 1,136,109 and Willkie 879,327.

In the Republican region downstate, Willkie was ahead, 3,590 of 3,989 precincts giving him 986,640 votes to 859,649 for Roosevelt.

Less Than in 1936

While it was clear that the President was winning Illinois' 29 electoral votes for the third time since 1932, the late returns showed that he would not enjoy the great pluralities he had in his two previous campaigns. In 1932 Roosevelt carried Illinois by 449,548. Four years later his plurality was 712,606.

It was still to be determined whether Illinois would send a second Democratic Senator to Congress, Senator James M. Slattery, the Democrat seeking election to

Uvalde, Tex., Nov. 6.—(AP)—Vice President John N. Garner took a walk Tuesday.

Unlike his wife, secretary and hundreds of Uvalde citizens he did not vote in the general election.

When his precinct box closed at 7 p. m., he had cast no ballot there and county officials said he had not voted absentee.

Secluded in his big brick residence, he gave no reason for breaking his voting habits of many years.

Election attaches said they could not recall when the vice president had failed to vote heretofore.

"All Out" Victory

Ottawa, Ill., Nov. 6.—(AP)—LaSalle county Republicans scored an "all out" victory in yesterday's election.

Besides giving a majority to national and state candidates, they defeated the only three incumbent Democratic county officeholders.

The defeated incumbents were County Recorder Leo McNamara, Auditor Paul W. Meager and Dr. H. S. Lester, coroner.

Lee Co. Totals

Lee county returned to its old former Republican way of voting in Tuesday general election, giving an almost two-to-one vote to every Republican candidate and defeating Edward A. Jones, Democratic State's Attorney for the past eight years, who has been the only county officer holder of that political faith in many years. He was beaten by Morey C. Pires, Dixon, 10,254 to 6,653.

Returns on University of Illinois trustees and congressmen-at-large were far from complete, but the vote was being split in these candidacies in about the same proportion as for the others on the ticket. Continuation of the special tax for tuberculosis care in Lee county was voted, apparently, and fragmentary returns show the amendment to the banking law approved by Lee county voters.

Unofficial totals in the county:

Fire Routs Thousands From Funeral Services

Chicago, Nov. 6.—(AP)—Several hundred persons, most of them Negroes, were forced by fire to flee from the Olivet Baptist church, 3101 South Parkway, today while funeral services were being held for the pastor, the Rev. L. K. Williams, Negro minister killed last week in an airplane accident near Flint, Mich.

The cause of the blaze, which damaged the interior of the church, was unknown. No one was injured.

Amboy Policeman Assaulted as He Prevents Theft

James Reed, 18, 2822 South Washington street, Peoria, CCC camp worker from Camp Sawyer, Hayward, Wis., is being held in the Lee county jail while Sheriff G. P. Finch is seeking his companion, Harold Coons, 19, of Galesburg. Reed was taken in custody about 2 o'clock this morning in a used-car yard in Amboy by Night Police Officer Louis Scott, who half an hour before had been struck over the head with an iron bar by a robber whom he surprised while attempting to enter the Nowe hardware store.

Scott was making his rounds inspecting places of business and when he walked into a driveway in the rear of the Nowe store, his flash light revealed a man attempting to jimmy a window in the building. Scott grappled with the stranger and was struck a glancing blow on the right side of the head with an iron bar. The thief broke away and ran as the night officer fired several shots in his direction.

Sheriff Summoned

About a half hour later Scott found Reed crouched in an old used car and when he was questioning him, a bullet was fired at Scott which missed his head only by a fraction of an inch. Sheriff Finch and Deputy L. E. Bates went to Amboy about 2 o'clock this morning and assisted in the search for the would-be thief. Reed was brought to Dixon and placed in the county jail pending the outcome of an investigation.

According to Reed's story, as told to the sheriff, he and Coons were on leave from the CCC camp and had hitch-hiked to Beloit, where they parted. Reed planned to return to Peoria on U. S. route 51 and Coons decided to go to Rock Island and attempt to secure employment in the Arsenal. Reed was said to have told the sheriff that he secured a ride with an automobile salesman at Peoria last night and left the car at Amboy. Sheriff Finch was checking Reed's story with the camp officer at Hayward and with Peoria police and requested Rock Island police to apprehend Coons, who was to be returned to Dixon for questioning in connection with the attempted robbery.

Cook Co. Voters Give OK to Bank Amendment

Chicago, Nov. 6.—(AP)—Cook county citizens voted substantially in favor of the banking amendment submitted by referendum in Tuesday's election.

With 4,120 of the county's 4,389 precincts reported the vote was 347,007 in favor of the amendment to 185,296 against. The amendment would permit the organization of state banks in communities of 2,500 or less population with $25,000 capital if the community has no other banking facilities.

Under existing law a capitalization of $50,000 is required.

GOP CANDIDATE GIVEN HIGHEST VOTE FOR PARTY

Outcome of Rest of State Contests Uncertainly Close

BULLETIN
Chicago, Nov. 6.—(AP)—Republican C. Wayland Brooks forged today into a narrow lead over U. S. Senator James M. Slattery, Democrat, in their hotly-contested race for senator.

On the strength of late gains in the Cook county area outside the city of Chicago, Brooks went out in front by 7,458 votes with all but 197 of the state's precincts tabulated.

An Associated Press tabulation gave Brooks 1,973,238 and Slattery, 1,965,780 in 8,181 of 8,378 precincts.

Throughout last night and most of today, Senator Slattery had held firmly to a narrow advantage gained in heavily-Democratic Chicago precincts.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—(AP)—In a precedent-smashing victory ending eight years of Democratic control of the state government, Republican Dwight H. Green was elected governor by the biggest vote ever given a G. O. P. candidate for any Illinois state office.

Green, 43-year-old former federal prosecutor, swept Cook county as well as downstate to vanquish Harry B. Hershey, his Democratic opponent.

With only 462 precincts missing in the state, Green's plurality pyramided today to 188,992. The vote stood Green 2,032,223 and Hershey 1,843,231.

Democrat Edward J. Hughes, appeared headed for third-term re-election, but Republican candidates were leading by close margins for most other state offices.

It was the first time in the modern political history of Illinois that gubernatorial and presidential candidates of opposite parties carried the state. Green scored his sensational triumph while Illinois was staying firmly in the Roosevelt column for president.

Beats Hoover's Record

Even with all the ballots uncounted, Green's vote exceeded that cast for Herbert Hoover in the 1928 presidential election. Hoover's vote of 1,769,141 in Illinois that year had since stood as a record.

So close was the Slattery-Brooks race for United States senator, and the other state races, that it couldn't be told with certainty how many of Green's G. O. P. ticket associates would go into office with him at Springfield next January.

It was certain, however, that sweeping changes were in store for the statehouse when rule of the executive departments shifts from Democratic to Republican hands. Green will supplant Democratic Governor John Stelle, who took over the executive power

Republicans Go In Lead in Missouri Race

St. Louis, Nov. 6.—(AP)—Forest C. Donnell, Republican nominee for governor of Missouri, took the lead over his Democratic opponent, Lawrence McDaniel, in returns today from 4336 precincts out of 4479 in the state. The vote: Donnell 873,275, McDaniel 871,568.

Illinois' Governor-Elect

Brilliant young Chicago attorney who was Tuesday chosen Governor of Illinois, thus ending eight years of Democratic rule in the state house at Springfield. The successful candidate, who carried Lee county 11,189 to 5,821, was given the largest vote ever given a Republican candidate for office in Illinois. Details in adjoining column.

Democrats Retain Congress Control in Both Houses

Washington, Nov. 6.—(AP)—Democrats retained control of both Houses of Congress in Tuesday's election and, on the basis of incomplete returns, reduced the size of the Republican minority in the House and faced the loss of few seats in the Senate.

At 12:30 p. m., (11:30 a. m., C. S. T.) today a tabulation showed that Democrats had elected 239 House members while Republicans were sure of 121. A majority is 218. Seventeen seats were taken from Republican incumbents by Democratic candidates and eight Republicans scored victories over Democratic incumbents, making a net gain of nine for the Democrats to the hour of compilation.

In 36 Senate races, Democrats had elected 20 and Republicans three. Republicans had picked up three seats they had not formerly held, while one Republican was ousted by a Democrat opponent. This made a net gain of two seats for the minority group.

The Democrats' certain successes, plus their 44 holdover seats, gave them an assured Senate majority of at least 64, compared with their present Senate membership of 69.

Republicans had 15 holdovers, assuring them at least 24 members in the new Senate. They have 21 seats in the present Senate.

The present composition of the House is 258 Democrats, 167 Republicans, two progressives, one Farmer-Labor, one American Labor and six vacancies, three of which were formerly held by Democrats and three by Republicans.

Wisconsin's Electoral Votes Still in Doubt

Milwaukee, Nov. 6.—(AP)—President Roosevelt's and Wendell Willkie's see-saw contest for Wisconsin's 12 electoral votes left the final result in doubt today although about nine-tenths of the vote had been counted.

The vote in 2,701 of 3,038 precincts, gave Roosevelt 610,243, Willkie 603,335.

The president, after trailing much of the way, suddenly spurred when returns from industrial Milwaukee began to come in.

The same kind of a battle—even closer—was waged between Fred H. Clausen, Republican candidate for U. S. senator, and the incumbent Senator Robert M. La Follette, (Prog.).

The vote in 2,413 precincts, gave Clausen 426,895, La Follette 427,017. The Democratic nominee, James E. Finnegan, trailed far behind with 124,091. La Follette endorsed President Roosevelt for re-election.

Republican Governor Julius P. Heil, who is seeking his second term, held a substantial lead over his progressive opponent, Orland S. Loomis and Francis E. McGovern, the Democratic.

PRESIDENT WINS DRAMATIC FIGHT FOR THIRD TERM

Smashes One of Most Ancient Traditions of American People

By The Associated Press
President Roosevelt, the precedent-breaker, smashed one of America's most ancient traditions today with a dramatic and sweeping victory in his battle for a third term.

His election was conceded in mid-morning by Wendell L. Willkie, his dogged, hard-hitting Republican opponent, who had made the third-term question one of the two outstanding issues of a slambang campaign.

At 9:30 a. m. C. S. T., in New York, Willkie's press secretary, Lem Jones, gave out the text of this congratulatory telegram: "Franklin D. Roosevelt, 'President of the United States, 'Hyde Park, New York. 'Congratulations on your re-election as President of the United States. I know that we are both gratified that we are both American citizens par-

Lewis is Cheerful

Washington, Nov. 6.—(AP)—John L. Lewis, watched silently today the mounting roll of Roosevelt votes which sounded the call he had set for himself to exit as president of the C. I. O.

Lewis, who sharply criticized the Roosevelt administration two weeks ago, and called for the election of Wendell Willkie, appeared in a cheerful mood as he met newspapermen at his office.

The C. I. O. leader, who was one of the outstanding New Deal supporters four years ago, said he would not make any public comment on the results of yesterday's election.

Defeat Conceded

Meanwhile, Senator Charles L. McNary of Oregon, Willkie's running-mate, conceded victory for Roosevelt and Henry A. Wallace, the Democratic vice presidential nominee.

The president spent last evening at his Hyde Park home, where in 1932 and 1936 he saw himself elected to the presidency, and where, just as in both those years, his happy neighbors thronged the spreading lawns and serenaded him with bugles and drums.

Promptly at midnight, Roosevelt greeted the serenaders from the portico. "Full returns" were lacking, he said, but the situation looked "all right".

"We, of course, face difficult days," he said. "But I think you will find me in the future just the same Franklin Roosevelt you have known for years."

The full extent of the president's victory could not be measured finally in advance of a more complete tabulation of the votes of several states.

Popular Plurality Less

Nevertheless, at 9:45 a. m. C. S. T., it appeared that his election had been accomplished with 468 of the country's 531 electoral votes. The number required for election is 266. Indications were that his popular plurality would prove considerably less than the margin of more than 10,000,000 by which he was elected in 1936.

In addition to a substantial lead in New York, the president held the advantage in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Missouri, Minnesota, New Jersey, California and Illinois, among others. Willkie was leading in nine states: Colorado, Iowa, Indiana, Kansas, Maine, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Vermont. The nine have 63 electoral votes.

Helped along by the president's sweep, Democrats kept control of both the house and senate.

With returns in many congressional districts still incomplete, the Democrats were certain of 237 house seats—19 more than the 218 needed for a bare majority—Republicans were sure of 114 and the American Labor

There will be a supper of pancakes, syrup, sausage and coffee held in Saint Mary's church hall on the evening of November 14. The supper will start at 6 o'clock. After the supper there will be a dance in the parish hall. Dancing will start at 8:30 and the music will be by Pozzisi orchestra.

Card Party

There will be a card party in Saint Mary's church hall on Monday evening, sponsored by the Palmer school. 500 and euchre will be played. There will be a door prize given. The Palmer school is taught by Mrs. Margaret Blackburn.

The card party held on last Monday evening sponsored by the McCaffrey school was well attended and a good time had by all. Door prize was won by Julia Brechon. Ladies' prize in 500 was won by Mrs. John Fielding of Amboy. Gentleman's prize in 500 went to Robert Levan. In euchre the prize was won by Elmer Kessel and Mrs. Ray Lally. The cake was awarded to Ray Lally. Mrs. Roman Malach is teacher of the McCaffrey school.

Post Nuptial Shower

The Young Ladies' Sodality tendered a shower to one of its former members last Tuesday evening in the church basement. 21 members were present. Chinese checkers was the diversion of the evening. Miss Sadie Healy received first prize in Chinese checkers. A delicious lunch was served, after which an electric iron was presented to Mrs. Robert O'Bryant, formerly Miss Viola Dempsey, the honoree of the evening. Mrs. O'Bryant thanked the Sodality in a few well chosen words and invited all to her home. All the members of the Sodality of which Mrs. O'Bryant was a member, wish her a long and happy wedded life.

Miss Doris Donnelly, student nurse at Saint Francis hospital, Peoria, spent the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Donnelly.

Many from this vicinity are expected to attend the supper in Maytown Thursday evening.

Mrs. Lee Ackert is having as guests at her home, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Roby of Parkersburg, Ill. Mrs. William Powers and Mrs. Alice Harvey of Amboy were callers at the home of Anna J. McCoy Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dieter and family of Amboy were callers Sunday at the home of Mrs. J. J. Morrissey, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Morrissey, Jr.

Anna J. McCoy spent Thursday at the home of Mrs. Alice Harvey in Amboy.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Morrissey motored to Freeport Saturday and attended the funeral of Miss Conahan that was held from Saint Mary's church in Freeport. Misses Josephine and Elizabeth Halligan were Sunday guests at the Leo Drew home.

How Winter OIL-PLATING maintains needed lubricant in advance—for Safe Quick Starts

Here's a short easy Quiz that can save you harsh starting wear all Winter... When you park, does all the lubricant drain down sooner if the cylinders slant like the sides of the letter V, or if they're straight up like the letter I?

Answer: All the lubricant DOES NOT drain down for hours—days—weeks—in any type of car engine that's OIL-PLATED by changing to Conoco Germ Processed oil for Winter.

Processed into this patented oil is the magnet-like ability to keep inner engine parts surfaced with rich slippery OIL-PLATING

...as close-fitting as other protective plating on your car... and just as drainproof!

Then before you can even get near your car, the waiting engine is already OIL-PLATED against the worst Winter wear. And out goes the dread of the starting period. Do you ever read or hear of any Winter help that's more positive? Change today then—simply, quickly, economically—to this patented Germ Processed oil that OIL-PLATES, warding off excess wear to keep up mileage.

Withdraws Resignation

The resignation of H. Jesse Baker from the pastorate of the Polo Brethren church presented to the Ministerial board and later, Sunday morning, October 20, presented by the Board to the congregation for consideration, has been officially withdrawn. The resignation was to have become effective March 1, 1941 at which time the Bakers had all plans made to begin pastoral work in the Muncie Church of the Brethren, Muncie, Indiana. The reason for the change in plans was due to the fact that increasing hazards caused by war developments has prevented Rev. I. E. Overholtzer, missionary to China, but home on extended furlough, and who for the past year has been serving the Muncie church as pastor has had his third sailing date cancelled, the last time for an indefinite period. Rev. Overholtzer now desires to continue his services with the Muncie church for the remainder of this pastoral year, so the Bakers have graciously consented to postpone the beginning of their work in that new field until September 1, 1941.

Russell Travis of Ottawa and Miss Elinor Garzonio of LaSalle spent the weekend with the former's mother, Mrs. Myrtle Travis, and brother, Eldon and family.

John Wilson was a Sunday dinner guest in the home of his son Elmer and family. Afternoon callers were Mrs. Jack Wilson and daughter of Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Beitel of Steward.

Clinton Woessner and Mrs. Leslie Rowland of Sterling attended the funeral of Orville Binkley Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Lynn Reed of Freeport spent Monday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kline.

Mrs. Sarah Isham and daughter, Mrs. Blanche Watson of LaCrosse, Wisconsin, who have been guests of the former's brother Frank Wilson and wife and other relatives since Wednesday, left Tuesday morning for their home.

Miss Irene Poole of LaGrange and Miss Marguerite Poole of Downers Grove spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Poole.

Mrs. W. Don Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wolfe visited the former's sister, Mrs. Lulu Hunter at Katherine Shaw Bethea hospital in Dixon Tuesday afternoon.

Prosecutor of Bowen Beaten in Kankakee

Kankakee, Ill., Nov. 6.—(AP)—State's Attorney Samuel H. Shapiro of Kankakee county, Democrat seeking re-election, was defeated by his Republican opponent, Joseph Tolson, by a margin of 293 votes on the basis of complete but unofficial returns today.

These totals gave Shapiro 14,251 and Tolson 14,544.

Shapiro prosecuted cases arising from the 1939 typhoid epidemic in which 60 persons died at the Manteno state hospital. In the first trial of A. L. Bowen, former state welfare director, the jury disagreed after 96-hours' deliberation.

Bowen was convicted later by Circuit Judge James V. Bartley on a charge of palpable omission of duty. He was ordered removed from office last July. On October 18 his resignation was accepted by Gov. John Steller.

Rep. Leo E. Allen is Returned to His Post

Leo E. Allen of Galena, Republican congressman from the 13th Illinois district, was easily re-elected to his position in Tuesday's election, his total, with but one precinct in Ogle county missing, being 58,085 to 31,668 for John B. Hayes of Rochelle, his Democratic opponent. The vote:

	Allen	Hayes
Jo Daviess	7,245	3,524
Stephenson	13,933	8,431
Whiteside	15,620	6,778
Carroll	6,313	2,968
Ogle	11,225	4,296
Lee	9,749	5,668

Representative Baker Re-elected by District

Voters of Winnebago and Ogle counties, comprising the Tenth senatorial district, yesterday returned Charles W. Baker, Ogle county farmer, to the Illinois state senate for a fourth term, according to early returns last night.

The Tenth district voters also gave large complimentary votes to David Hunter, Jr., and LeRoy M. Green, Republicans, and Edward C. Hunter, Democrat, unopposed on the ballot for the three state representative posts. In the last April primary, the Republican party nominated only two candidates and the Democrats named only one nominee for the three positions.

THE 1940 CANADIAN DUCK SURVEY POINTS TO WESTWARD FLIGHT

By Paul A. Meyers

Manitoba, one of our most important duck nesting grounds in the North American continent, offered fewer ducks this fall than it has in the past years. We spent nine days shooting on Lake Manitoba and adjacent territory. Lake Manitoba and Lake Winnipegosis have been famous for years as the summer home of the canvasback, northern mallard and blue bill. Where last year we had no difficulty in shooting our limit of 12 ducks in two to three hours time, we found it a hard day's shoot to kill five and six ducks this fall.

In connection with this condition two things are to be taken into consideration. First, last winter's shortage of snowfall on the eastern slope of the Canadian Rocky Mountains causing a lower water level in the lakes and duck marshes of Manitoba and second, a most unusual mild fall of balmy windless days with from 45 to 75 degrees of heat were not helpful. We met an old friend and duck hunter, Walter Peacock of Chicago, who told us in his years of duck hunting experience in this area he had never encountered the mild windless fall that he has experienced this year, and in his opinion whatever northern flight there is will be sudden and short in the three duck zone areas of the states.

Canadian Ducks Unlimited Survey

It was our good fortune to meet Tommy Main, general manager of the Canadian Division of Ducks Unlimited. Mr. Main demonstrated to us from his survey map and charts that concentration of ducks this year was very spotted in Manitoba. However, his survey showed a very dense population of ducks in the provinces of Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia. This condition will probably mean that our western states will get the lion's share of duck shooting when the northern flight is on the wing this fall. Even at this time early reports indicate that the opening season in our extreme northwestern states was probably much better than the opening season in the Dakotas, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan and all northern states in the northern zone eastward.

How Ducks Are Counted

We had always wanted to ask Tommy Main the question of "How can you count ducks from an aerial survey?" Mr. Main answered our question with a great deal of enthusiasm. He told us that these aerial surveys were made with a pilot, a navigator and two men with maps which were divided in squares representing one square mile to each block. The plane flies at a low altitude from 300 to 400 feet and each counter dots in the square, representing that portion of the lake over which they are flying, a dot for each duck. These areas are covered from six to nine times and then the average is drawn from the totals. We can readily see that an aerial survey taken this way should result in a pretty close count. Of course, in some of the areas where there is an intensity of ducks on the water some estimating is done. Ducks Unlimited are doing a whale of a good job in propagating our future duck supply.

Manitoba's Prairie Chickens Are Plentiful

Prairie chickens in central Manitoba hatched out an abundant crop this year. Dry spring and summer days produced large broods of the Pinnated grouse. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Coleman of Connecticut were in our hunting party and it put some of the old time hunters to shame to see diminutive Mrs. Coleman bring in her brace of prairie chickens each evening with the help of her trusty 20-gauge over and under shot gun. Of course, Mrs. Coleman isn't a novice with the scatter gun, having won a number of district as well as national honors at skeet shooting.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SAID:

"Excessive partiality for one foreign nation and excessive dislike of another cause those whom they actuate to see danger only on one side, and serve to veil even second the arts of influence on the other. Real patriots who may resist the intrigues of the favorite are liable to become suspected and of the favorite are liable to become suspected and odious, while its tools and dupes usurp the applause and confidence of the people to surrender their interests." From the Farewell Address.

Building for Peace

Our eyes are on our rapidly growing armaments, as they should be and must be, the world being what it is. The shipyards ring, the barracks rise, the tanks rumble off the assembly line.

But in the meantime America is also building for peace. Stewart McDonald, Federal Housing administrator, estimates that by the end of 1940, America will have built as many single-family homes during the year as the 1920-29 average, or about 427,000.

Four hundred thousand homes is a lot of homes.

Casualties Without Wounds

When the present war broke out in Europe, doctors predicted that a wave of influenza or some other epidemic disease would sweep over Europe and perhaps American as it did in 1917-18.

Thus far it hasn't happened. But now a still more terrible prospect is being held out. It is that the prolonged loss of sleep by Londoners and Berliners may bring about a lowering of their resistance to disease, nervous breakdowns, and varied psychiatric troubles.

The day-by-day losses, the hour-by-hour destruction is quite bad enough. To think that a groundwork is being laid for a generation of neuro-psychiatric cases, not only among front soldiers, but among whole peoples, is a thought that adds one more touch of horror to modern war.

To inflict casualties without even having to inflict wounds sounds like a militarist's pipe dream, but the physicians seem to feel that it is a dream coming true.

Hot Chow for Soldiers

Chalk up one for the refugees! Leo Katz, who is such an emergency immigrant from Germany, has been demonstrating a new device to the army. It's a ration can that heats itself without fire.

It's two cans, really—an outer one containing chemicals, and an inner one containing food. When the outer one is punctured the chemicals begin to work, heating the inner can. It means that soldiers, sailors, or civilians hiding in bomb shelters, can have hot beans or other canned food without kindling a fire.

It's too early to know whether Katz's idea is really feasible. But if it is, he has already paid his debt to the country which gave him refuge.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc., reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited.)

Washington, Nov. 6.—The men behind the Willkie campaign self-shrank themselves into anonymity to a great degree during the fray. It is now possible to remove their hats and disclose some heads that have not been altogether evident before.

John Hollister, law partner of Senator Taft, traveled on the Willkie train as a most important liaison man with the party regulars. Sinclair Weeks, son of the former war secretary was one of the outstanding executives in eastern headquarters along with Sam Pryor, the eastern manager who was the main cog, Congressman Horton, of Wyoming, had a big hidden hand in the west, as did John Cowles, the publisher, in the middle west. Two other newcomers who stood at the right hand inconspicuously were Pierce Butler, Jr., son of the former Supreme Court Justice, and Edgar M. Queney, Missouri, an energetic young businessman.

This may be the first time you have heard of some of them in national politics but it will not be the last.

Roosevelt's sub-circle was distinguished by only one name new to politics, that of Lowell Mellett. He was apparently the leading and most active brain trust. The position of the former liberal editor constantly increased during the campaign until finally he was traveling on the President's campaign train unostentatiously for thinking business.

The others were the President's well known friends in the government, Senator Byrnes, Frank Walker, Paul McNutt, Ben Cohen, et al, but the list was unusually deficient in congressmen who generally are most active in campaigns.

Morning after the nation's quadrennial political spree rarely leaves more ailments than can be cured by aspirin and time. The nation's doctors around here are saying this time the campaign served as a healthful nervous outlet for a body politic upset emotionally by the war and class strife.

But it left one symptom that is worrying them. The tendency of children for violence toward distinguished persons was novel, but neither as novel nor grave as the inclination of grown-up youngsters to endorse child criminality. In the latter stages the adults carried their endorsement into action by substituting tomatoes for argument.

Coherent letters were written by adults to prominent officials, and more than a dozen to this column actually praising child violence in the campaign. One scribe said it was a "heroic" expression by the undeveloped against "the outright lies and other forms of propaganda that are not wanted in this country." Another claimed the immature kids showed "intelligence."

Such madness will probably be recognized for what it is by the writers of the letters themselves, now that the ballots are in and counted. But the exhibition of such evidence has aroused the interest of authorities in criminal psychology to such an extent that something will be done.

Among others, Walter M. Germain, head of the crime prevention division of the police department, Saginaw, Mich., has measured these campaign activities of children against the rise in juvenile crime generally and is undertaking a study. Germain believes origin can be traced back to the depression and the relaxation then of parental care now bearing bitter fruit in the emotional stress of war. He doubts that earlier trips to the woodshed would have helped, and he wants more crime prevention activity among children by police, contending this is a city, state and Federal job.

Other child authorities in government here are making individual studies, unwilling to commit themselves yet.

The coolest politicians are likewise looking back on this one and agreeing how they could have done it better, even before the complete ballot count recorded the results of their labors.

Roosevelt, who was never accused of having made a political mistake before, is being roasted by some of his own leaders privately for his handling of this one. Strongly critical were the reports from some Democratic pitchmen in Indiana and Illinois. It may now be told they did everything but seize Roosevelt bodily in an effort to get him out there. Roosevelt, for instance, was told last week that his good friend Senator Shay Minton would be an "unhatched shay" if the President did not come out to save him.

There was another time in the closing days when the President considered going as far west as St. Louis to make a speech.

His national leaders thought it

Courtney Is Big Vote Getter of Chicago Contest

Chicago, Nov. 6.—(AP)—State's Attorney Thomas J. Courtney once again outstripped all other Democratic vote getters, including President Roosevelt, in Cook county (Chicago) today.

Just as in 1936 when the tall, handsome prosecutor ran well ahead of Roosevelt's thumping majority in the metropolitan county, Courtney took command in a fashion that pulled the other county Democratic candidates to the front with him.

Returns from 4,187 of 4,389 precincts in Cook county gave Courtney 1,150,781, a lead of 377,017 over his Republican opponent, Oscar F. Nelson who had 773,764 in the same precincts. President Roosevelt, on the other hand, had a lead in Cook county of only 256,000, polling 1,136,109 to Wendell L. Willkie's 879,327 in 4,215 of the 4,359 precincts.

The same 4,187 precincts in which Courtney rolled up his commanding margin, the Democratic candidates for coroner, recorder of deeds, court clerk and sanitary district trustees were ahead by at least 100,000 votes.

Couldn't Help Hershey

However, neither the vote-pulling power of Courtney nor Roosevelt was able substantially to help Harry B. Hershey, Democratic candidate for governor, in Cook county. Hershey was trailing his Republican opponent, Dwight H. Green, by nearly 13,000 in 4,114 precincts in the area.

Effectiveness of Chicago's most intensive campaign for honest voting was recognized by County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki, head of the Cook county election machinery, who said:

"I'm happy to say today that this was one of the cleanest elections on record in Chicago. As far as violence was concerned, there were no hits, no runs and no errors."

Jarecki said the army of 10,000 or more watchers from civic groups constituted a "controlling factor in this clean election," and added: "I thank them for their splendid patriotic job."

Deaths

Suburban—MORRIS COOK

Morris Cook of Steward, well known throughout northwest Illinois and a leading citizen of that community for many years, passed away Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Lincoln hospital in Rochelle. He was taken quite ill last Thursday and Sunday morning was removed from his home to the hospital for observation and treatment.

Mr. Cook was one of the most active citizens in the eastern section of Lee county. He represented Alto township as a member of the board of supervisors for 12 years, during which he was honored by election to the chairmanship. For 20 years he had served as assessor in Alto, where he also served as a member of the drainage district commission and on the Steward school board. He also served as state cattle quarantine inspector in northern Illinois for a period of five years.

He was born in Kendall county Sept. 10, 1884 and with his parents moved to Alto township in 1886. He was united in marriage to Miss Gertrude C. Hemmaway, of Steward, in September 1888, who survives him with five children: Mrs. Effie Fell, Harold and Miss Florence of Steward, Loyal of Bee Heights, S. D. and Gardner of Hinckley. Eleven grandchildren and one brother, George Cook of Rockford, also survive. One daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Thompson of Steward preceded him in death only a few weeks ago.

Funeral services will be held at the First Methodist church at Steward of which Mr. Cook had been an active member for 61 years, Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. Henry Page White of Rockford, the Rev. Warren Hutchinson of Capron and the Rev. Hugh Morris of Steward will conduct the services and interment will be in the Steward cemetery.

There are an estimated 3,000,000 lepers in the world, or one out of every 500 persons.

Indiscoverable. His speeches were put together hurriedly, for the most part, and were not up to his best. Only the Philadelphia speech made many votes.

Iowa Rejects Wallace And New Deal Yesterday

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 6.—(A P)—Iowa passed up the New Deal and its favorite son, Henry A. Wallace, today to plant its 11 electoral votes in the Wendell Willkie column.

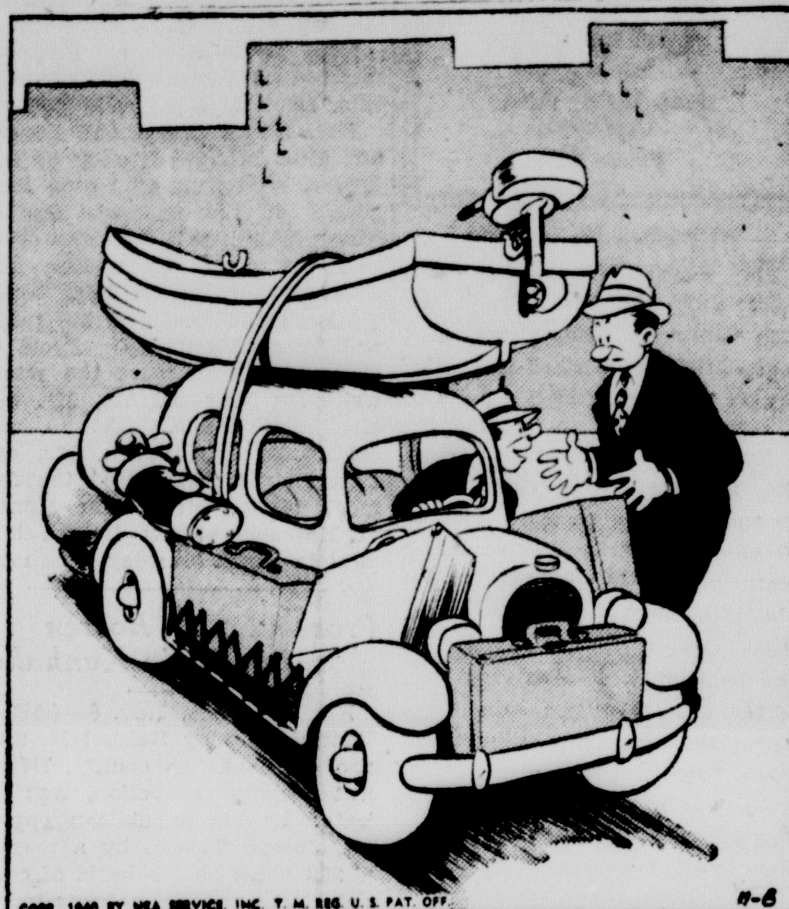

Returning to its traditional Republican role in a possibly record turnout at the polls, the corn belt state also re-elected George A. Wilson, its G. O. P. governor. Unofficial returns from 1,809 of the state's 2,453 precincts gave: Willkie 457,678, Roosevelt 426,369.

The same number of precincts for governor gave: Wilson (R) 448,242, John K. Valentine (D) 402,302.

U. S. exports to Italy during August dropped to less than $16,000 from $3,721,000 a year ago.

Yellowstone national park was so designated in 1872.

HOLD EVERYTHING

"Oh, I returned from my vacation two months ago, but I just haven't got around to unpacking yet!"

Slattery Holds Narrow Lead in Race With Brooks

Chicago, Nov. 6.—(AP)—U. S. Senator James M. Slattery, Democratic incumbent battling to retain his post at Washington, clung to a narrow lead over Republican C. Wayland Brooks today in the face of mounting, unofficial returns.

With 7,847 precincts reported out of 8,378 in the state, an Associated Press tabulation showed Slattery leading by 19,999 votes. The vote: Slattery, 1,890,293 and Brooks 1,872,294.

The missing precincts were about evenly-divided between Cook county, where Senator Slattery was leading, and downstate, where Brooks was running ahead. Contests were close for all the state offices, with indications mounting that Governor-elect Dwight H. Green would have a politically-divided administration.

Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes, Democratic incumbent, appeared heading for reelection to a third term. In 7,519 precincts out of 8,378, Hughes was leading Justus L. Johnson, Republican, by 164,262. The vote was Hughes, 1,875,579; Johnson, 1,711,317.

Other Democratic state candidates leading on the basis of the incomplete returns were Homer Mat Adams, national president of the Young Democratic clubs, for state treasurer, and T. V. Smith, congressman-at-large, who forged to the front today in the four-sided contest for the two seats.

Latest returns for the other state offices showed: Lieutenant governor, 7,519 precincts (out of 8,378)—Cross (R) 1,891,609; Lewis (D) 1,745,127. Auditor, 7425 precincts: Lueder (R) 1,756,719; Martin, 1,755,140.

Treasurer, 7425 precincts: Adams (D) 1,759,034; Wright (R) 1,750,942. Attorney General, 7425 precincts: Barrett (R) 1,778,324; Ward (D) 1,724,604.

Congress-at-large, (two to be elected), 6676 precincts: Smith (D) 1,705,153; Stratton (R) 1,700,210; Day (R) 1,674,830; Orlikowski (D) 1,628,987.

University of Illinois trustees, Democratic candidates all leading.

I WISH TO EXPRESS MY APPRECIATION

And hearty thanks to the electorate for their support at the polls in Tuesday's election.

DENNIS J. COLLINS

THANK YOU!

My sincere thanks are extended to everyone who in any way assisted in my success in the election. Your friendship and support is greatly appreciated.

● SERIAL STORY

GOAL TO GO

BY W. H. PEARS

COPYRIGHT 1940, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY: Bill recalls the accident that injured his father, Buck Mentor. Today: He is a workman, unknown to him, but it left the one-time All-American back an invalid. There was hope that an operation might restore his health, but there wasn't enough money. Sunday morning the West variety, angry over their defeat and Landis' announcement that the wrong play had been called, visited Buck. They have a plan to oust Landis, get the job for Buck.

CHAPTER III

BUCK MENTOR said, "Go ahead."

"We're going on a strike," Don Hart blurted.

"We're through with Landis' dirty tricks," Calvert added. "He sent me into the game last night to run off that razzle-dazzle. Now he's ducking the blame. We won't stand for it!"

Buck Mentor, looking from one angry face to the other with grave gray eyes, said nothing.

"We've talked to our folks," Drowsy explained. "They haven't forgotten all the cold, rainy days he sent the squad home with sniffles and sore muscles. They're still pretty mad at Landis."

"And they're dead set on winning the big game against East this year," Hart said. "If we refuse to play for Landis, they'll back us up."

The boys were silent, waiting for Buck to speak. He took a long pull on his pipe.

"You fellows know there's nothing in the world I'd rather do than coach you."

"Attaboy, Buck! Bill knows how you want us to block and tackle. He can help you."

"No, wait, I haven't finished. It's impossible the way you've planned it."

"Why?" Hart demanded.

"You fellows are like soldiers in an army," Buck said slowly. "You can't just quit when something doesn't please you. Not even if you think the general's giving you a dirty deal. That's called desertion. You've got to stick out your jaws and ask for more."

Calvert scuffed his toe on the threadbare carpet. "But, gosh, Buck, we thought . . ."

Buck's voice was gentle. "Sure, fellow, I know what you thought. It's not easy for me to refuse. I'm just about bursting inside that you fellows want me. But if Landis is really a poor coach he won't last. In the meantime, give him all you've got. Then if he fails he won't have an alibi."

"Gee, Buck, do you really mean that?" Drowsy asked.

"I do, Drowsy."

The boys talked in low tones, then Hart said, "Okay, Buck, what you say goes with us. We'll stick."

"Good stuff, fellows!" As the squad moved slowly toward the door Buck turned to his son. "Bill, can you practice with them tomorrow?"

"I usually squeeze in a little time before work, Buck. But why?"

"I'm not sure, Bill, but somehow I feel that seeing you take the same medicine prescribed for them may help . . ."

worn uniform. The shoulderpads were bulky and obsolete, the jersey faded and torn; but to Bill it was a suit of shining armor.

As he jogged out on the practice field, Landis turned. He was a heavy man with a meat-red face and practically no neck. He barked commands like a drill sergeant, yet never seemed quite sure of himself.

"Working out today, Mentor?" "If it's okay, Coach."

"Makes no difference to me. You can scrimmage with the scrubs."

Bill went into a huddle. He ran off several routine plays without much gain. The varsity squad was charging in hard and fast. The scrubs were determined but out-clasped.

"Too bad you guys can't roll like that under pressure," Landis commented sarcastically.

The boys scowled but remained silent. From the varsity backfield Bullethead Peskin called with a sneer: "Hey, Mentor, why doncha give us some of those too, two wonderful plays of your old man?"

Bill took a threatening step toward Peskin, but Landis cut in sharply, "All right, all right, get going now!"

Still smoldering, Bill called his squad into a huddle. "Let's show Coach what we can do," he begged. "Here's one Buck taught me. It's no razzle-dazzle, but if we get it timed right it may fool 'em. Now listen . . ."

Bill took the pass from center, drove forward. Just before he reached the line he handed the ball to the wingback, who started a sweep around right end. Bill's heart pounded as he blocked out a defensive guard trailing the play. He wanted desperately to be able to tell Buck that his play had fooled the varsity. . . .

Then he heard Landis' whistle shrill and saw the ball carrier sail into the clear. The play had worked!

Hands on his hips, Landis glared at Bill. "I suppose you think you're quite a coach, eh, Mentor?"

"No, sir."

"Well, get this straight. You can teach the scrubs all the Buck Mentor plays you want, but no varsity of mine will ever run them. In fact, Mentor, I'd welcome the chance to smear a few All-American plays!"

Bill turned to the scrubs with a grin. "If any of you fellows are interested in Coach's idea, drop around at the house. Buck'll give us a little skull practice. So long!"

IT was nearly Bill's quitting time when Bullethead Peskin swaggered into the drug store. Dot Skelton clung to his arm. Bullethead led her to a booth and gestured imperiously for Bill.

"Gimme a hot chocolate, and Dot here wants . . ."

"Thank you," Dot snapped. "I'll do my own ordering." She curved her full red lips in a teasing smile. "How are you, Bill? Don't you think it'd be nice to say hello to me?"

"Hello," Bill said.

Dot pouted. "Must you always say it like a parrot?"

Bullethead was turning green about the mouth. "Say, Dot, what's the idea of talking to this soda jerk?"

"You hush up, Walton!" she flared. "I like Bill. He's a gentleman, which is more than I can say for some fellows. . . ."

She walked scarlet-tipped nails up Bill's sleeve. "I'll bet you're really not such a woman-hater, Bill."

He gulped. She was pretty, all right, with her auburn hair and green eyes, but he wished she'd let him alone. She pulled that line every time she came in. He forced a grin. "How about a hot fudge sundae?"

"Oh, dear, my figure . . ." She twisted around in an obvious effort to draw Bill's attention to her slim curves. "But if you say I'm not too plump, Bill, I'll give in."

Bill shot an embarrassed glance at Drowsy Peters, who grinned back impishly over his coke. "You're not too plump," Bill said gruffly.

Dot was coy when he returned with the order: "Bill, why don't you ever come to the dances? Or ask anyone for a date?"

"I work every night," Bill said, and hurried behind the fountain.

Bullethead Peskin bellowed: "Hey, Mentor, we want water. And sloop some extra chocolate on Dot's sundae."

Bill hesitated, red spots of anger coloring his cheeks. It was past his quitting time, but if he ignored the order it might mean his job. For Buck's sake he swallowed his pride and obeyed. Then, without a glance at either Dot or Bullethead, he joined Drowsy.

DROWSY blinked at him like a sleepy kitten. "You ain't smart, Bill."

"Why?"

"Giving Dot the brush-off. She's been trying to get a tumble out of you for six months."

"So what?" Bill asked, then added, his heart jumping curiously, "I—I got a girl."

"Only this, you dope! J. Conrad Skelton runs the board. Little Dottie runs J. Conrad . . ."

"You mean, I . . ."

Drowsy was patient. "I mean, Willie, that this Landis don't know which way is up. He won't last. If you're in solid with the Skeltons when the ax falls you can do Buck a lot of good. . . ."

Miss Slagle and Mr. Hicks Pledge Vows of Marriage

Only members of their immediate families were present this morning for the simple wedding service in which Miss Mary Kathryn Slagle, only daughter of the senior Earl Slagles of 815 East Chamberlin street, became the bride of Wallace A. Hicks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace A. Hicks, Sr. of 709 East Third street. The vows were solemnized at 10 o'clock at the rectory of St. Patrick's Catholic church, before the Rev. Father James D. Burke.

The bride chose Miss Betty Moerschbaeher as her only attendant, and Betty's fiancé, James E. Bales, served as best man for Mr. Hicks.

Miss Slagle selected a blue crepe street frock with a turban of black transparent velvet and black accessories for her bridal attire. At her shoulder was a single orchid. The tiny ivory telescope, containing finely-printed words of the Lord's prayer, which was carried by this morning's bride, belongs to Miss Moerschbaeher, and is to be carried by members of their sewing club as they become brides. The first bride to carry the trinket was Mrs. Robert Coakley, the former Miss Ruby Grimes.

Miss Moerschbaeher was dressed in brown. Her shoulder corsage contained red roses.

Mrs. Slagle chose soldier blue, with black accessories, for her daughter's wedding, and Mrs. Hicks, the bridegroom's mother, was attired in black. Red roses formed their corsages.

Following the ceremony, between 20 and 25 guests from Canton, Sumner, Batavia, Aurora, Franklin Grove and Dixon were entertained at breakfast at the home of the young bride's parents. Mrs. Slagle was assisted in serving by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Hall, and Miss Janice Brandt. The bride's cake, in the form of two white wedding bells, was decorated with white flowers with silver centers, and was placed on a mirror platter in the center of the bridal table. Yellow and white chrysanthemums encircled the cake, and at either side were yellow tapers in two-branch candelabra.

Later in the morning, Mr. Hicks and his bride left on a southern wedding trip. After Sunday, they will be at home in a newly-furnished apartment at the Louis Schumann residence, 211 Everett street.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hicks were graduated from Dixon high school with the class of 1937. The bride, for whom a series of pre-nuptial courtesies have been arranged by friends during the past few weeks, is employed in the auditing department of the Illinois North-

Will Address Dixon Woman's Club

MRS. LESLIE O'BRIEN

Members of the American citizenship and international relations department of the Dixon Woman's club have arranged the program for Saturday's meeting of the club, and are announcing Mrs. Leslie O'Brien of Oak Park, picture above, as their guest speaker. Mrs. O'Brien is considered an authority on legislative trends and has accomplished extensive research on international relations.

She is a past president of the Oak Park Woman's club of about 750 members, is an active member of the Culture club, president of the Reading club and Unity Book club, and director of Oak Park Infant Welfare. She has also been serving as secretary of the International Relations department of the Sixth District Federation.

The meeting is scheduled for 2:30 o'clock at the Loveland Community House.

ern Utilities company. She is a member of Royal Cardinals.

Today's bridegroom, who is the Hicks' only child, owns the Hicks Phillips 66 filling station at the corner of Peoria avenue and River street. On Monday evening, his mother entertained informally for a group of Miss Slagle's friends who have been hosting in her honor.

Witnessing the nuptial service were the bride's parents and brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Slagle and sons Earl, Jr. and James; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hicks, Sr.; the bride's maternal grandparents, the Rev. and Mrs. R. B. Hall of Sumner, Ill.; Joseph Hall, uncle of the bride; Mrs. A. B. McCray of Aurora, the bridegroom's grandmother; Mrs. F. F. Walters of Batavia, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Hicks of Franklin Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. George Hicks of Amboy.

Alex Turner has returned to his work at The Telegraph, following a two-week illness.

Ogle 4-H Members Win Recognition

Three Ogle county 4-H club members have been honored with the citation of "state outstanding club member," awarded by the state 4-H club committee, University of Illinois, for outstanding 4-H activities over a period of years. The trio includes Gavin Cross of Polo, Carroll Coffman of German Valley and Marion Holmes of Lindenwood.

To receive recognition as outstanding members, community activities of 4-H workers are considered, in addition to general club work. Carroll Coffman received the additional honor of being selected as Illinois delegate to the national camp next summer, and will be Ogle county's first representative at the camp.

Carroll is credited with many previous honors in his farm accounting project, and has previously been chosen state project champion and state honor member. He is a member of the Adeline 4-H club, whose leader is Robert Trei. Gavin is a member of the Eagle Springs club, and Marion is a Willing Worker member.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

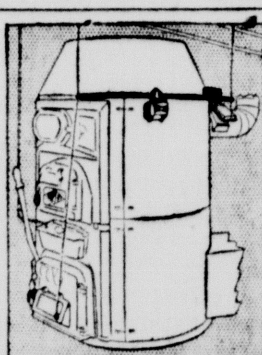

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning!

The liver should pour 2 pints of bile juice into your bowels every day. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food may not digest. It may just decay in the bowels. Then gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. You feel sour, sunk and the world looks pink.

It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these 2 pints of bile flowing freely to make you feel "up and up." Get a package today. Take as directed. Amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. 10¢ and 25¢.

POST ELECTION LETDOWN

Except for fragmentary football returns yet to be recorded and bowling, the local sports scene looks like the day after election. Now that the frost is on the pumpkin and the fodder in the shock, there's not much left to be said about the neighborhood grid season. Games this week end will wind up the schedules and also put an end to sports writers' predictions. Running neck and neck with the Gallup poll for prestige, we risk our neck on the season's windup of eight games. Alumni at Dixon: We haven't picked a tie game this season, but we're going to try it on this one. It's not mere diplomacy which prompts us to say: Alumni 13; High School 13. Rock Falls at Morrison: After this one we'll all be saluting the Rockets as the 1940 champions of the Rock River conference. Rock Falls 20; Morrison 7. Mt. Morris at Amboy: This is Amboy's turn—not to win, but to count the first touchdown of the season. Mt. Morris 14; Amboy 6. Polo at Oregon: In another Rock River conference game we think the Oregon Hawks have the stronger aggregation. Oregon 21; Polo 0. Geneseo at Princeton: Geneseo, the pepper-pot of the Blackhawk conference, resents the spill by Mendota and will not let another North Central conference team get away with it. May be close. Geneseo 14; Princeton 13. Harlem at Rochelle: The Hubs have it on the ball this year and should take the Rockford eleven; say, 14 to 6. Sycamore at DeKalb: It's been a disastrous season for the Barbs and the wind-up isn't likely to be much better. Sycamore 21; DeKalb 0. Spring Valley at Mendota: Frank Seno in his last game for Mendota should spark the home team's attack by at least a two-touchdown margin. Mendota 14; Spring Valley 0. Clinton, Ia. at Sterling: Only a broken arm will stop Sterling from completing the season undefeated and untied. Sterling 12; Clinton 7.

TIME, PLACE AND OFFICIALS

The Alumni game with the high school varsity will begin at 7:45 p. m. Friday night and only one game will be played without a preliminary. Officials will be Fred Parker of Rockford, Willard Powers of Mt. Morris and Paul Potts of Dixon.

LOOKING FORWARD

With the football season soon to be buried along with the defeated candidates of yesterday, the trend is to look forward and note just what may be expected in the days to come. For one thing, even if your favorite candidates lost yesterday, you may take cheer in the approaching basketball season. Coach L. E. Sharpe will have six of the "tournament ten" back for the 1940-41 campaign. Of the boys who played in the final game at Rockford on March 6 last spring, Bill Shultz, center and guard; Ardel Bugg, forward; Clarence Kelly, forward; Bill Witzleb, center; Cyril Shank, forward; and Bob McNamera, guard. Those lost by graduation included Alan Wienman, Bill McNichols, Leland Shoaf and Bill Moser. Except for a probable earlier alumni game, the season will get under way with the game at Rockford East on December 6—and that, sports fans, is just one month from today.

ALUMNI PRACTICE

Members of the Alumni football team will hold their final practice under the mazdas tonight at the local field at 7:00 o'clock. This will be the most important session, and Coach Charles Roundy stresses the need for every candidate to report early.

TWO TEAMS ARE TIED FOR FIRST IN CITY LEAGUE

Tilton Sets New High For Series With a 627 Last Night

With eight bowling precincts heard from last night in the City League the Plum Hollow and Myers Royal Blue quintets were running neck and neck for the lead with neither candidate yet willing to concede the election.

The Three Deuces dropped Plum Hollow in two games last night and Myers Royal Blue took two from Reynolds wire, to knot the two aggregations with 17 wins and 13 losses each.

Cy Winebrenner of the Three Deuces led his mates with a 619 series and cracked the record set by Joe Miller earlier in the season. Winebrenner's mark failed to set a new high, however, as Tilton of the Post Office surged ahead with a 627 series last night. Poole's 564 paced the losers.

McClanahan counted 581 to lead the Myers team over the wiremen and R. Winebrenner rolled 552 to lead the losers.

Mailmen Win Three

The Post Office stayed off the cellar floor by winning three games from Boynton-Richards. Tilton's new high series of 627 set the pace for the mailmen and Schroeder counted 545 to lead the clothiers.

Fallstroms won three games from Strub & Schultz and Fallstrom counted 526 to top his mates and Whippman rolled 544 for the losers.

High games last night included those of: Fallstrom 201; Schroeder 207; Tilton 215-222; Legore 221; Poole 207; Cy Winebrenner 244-225.

Amboy Graduate Boosts His Grid Scoring at Normal

Bloomington, Ill., Nov. 6.—(AP)—Floyd Covill, Amboy high school graduate and fullback on the league-leading State Normal football team, increased his lead last week in the Illinois Intercollegiate Conference's race for individual scoring honors.

Covill has averaged two touchdowns a game for Normal's three games in conference competition, giving him 36 points, twice as many as his nearest rival. None of the leaders has kicked a field goal.

High Schools to End Grid Season This Week

Probable Stars of Saturday's Grid Games

Here are big shots of college games of Nov. 9. Capt. Dick Foster, left, will play plenty of end for Navy against Notre Dame in Baltimore. Bill Conatser, center, is quite likely to turn out to be a running and kicking fool for Texas A. & M. against Southern Methodist in Dallas. Ed Frutig, right, is a Michigan end who will do his best to put an end to Minnesota in Minneapolis.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIETZ

New York, Nov. 6.—(AP)—

News: G-man Atherton, coast grid czar, reported ready to start blasting again. And the alumni at Oregon and Oregon State are all set to raise plenty of you know what if he bumps any guys off their squads. . . . Instead of retiring Bill Klem, the National League is now considering making him supervisor of umpires, shifting Ernie Kuehly to promotion work and umpire scouting. . . . Howard Jones says Stanford is every bit as good as the Duke and Tennessee teams which played in the Rose Bowl. . . . Jimmy Wilson's visit to Chicago has folks wondering if Phil K. Wrigley has changed his mind again about Gabby Hartnett.

Today's Guest Star—Fred Digby, New Orleans item: "Psychic: Jimmy Phelan of Washington U. must have known something was coming. . . . He left open the date for the Saturday preceding the Stanford game."

Tattle Tales—Billy Conn, who plays the numbers, hit for $1,800 when "688" turned up. . . . "The Angel" having pestered out, "The Black Panther," a masked mystery man, is wrestling's new shot-in-the-arm. . . . Lou Little has hired a special scout who does nothing but scout the Columbia team each Saturday—for weaknesses. . . . The Broadway gossip is saying Babe Dahlgren will land with the Browns. . . . Michigan has an individual named Cliff Wise ready and waiting just in case Tom Harmon decides he wants to rest for a minute or so. . . . The National League has dropped Umpire Bill Campbell and will replace him with Ernie Stewart, one of the American Association aces. . . . The favorites are running no better at Pimlico than they did here.

Headline Headliner—In the wake of Arkansas' upset victory over unbeaten Mississippi U., George Bugbee wrote in the Memphis Press-Scimitar: "Suddenly, ole Miss found it was fourth down and Vertigo."

Sports Cocktail—For a team that drills only eight hours a week, we think those Annapolis middies are doing a pretty fair country job of footballing. . . . Arturo Godoy and Tony Musto have signed to headline the Cleveland News Xmas fund show, December 2. . . . Herbert M. Woolf, owner of Lawrin, is going to name a full brother of the 1938 Kentucky Derby winner "Clude M. Bride" in honor of the famous Kansas City sports editor. . . . Lew Jenkins, king of the lightweights, has begun training for his November 22 date with Pete Lello. . . . A Pittsburgh newspaper is crusading to get a new name for the Steelers. . . . Think Mebbe it'll change their luck.

Won't Be Long Now—Colorado U. plays Missouri Saturday. . . . So appropriately enough, the Colorado press release reaching this desk today was headed: "Only three more shopping days until CHRISTMAS."

One-Minute Interview—Joe Cronin: "Boy, oh boy. . . . Where would my Red Sox go if we only had Cornell's pitchers? . . . Boy, oh boy!"

Western Conference Probably Has More Grid Aces Than Other Years

Chicago, Nov. 6.—(AP)—

The Western Conference probably has never had a more abundant crop of football aces destined, for one reason or another, to play the role of unsung and unheralded heroes than this season.

Many are being overshadowed by the superlative deeds of such standouts as Michigan's Tom Harmon, Minnesota's George Franck and Ohio State's Don Scott; others are playing on the weaker teams which don't grab the headlines like the leaders.

A notable example is Northwestern's Ollie Hahenstien, a fine halfback who has been performing brilliantly. He has completed four of 11 passes for 126 yards and has averaged 4.8 yards rushing in 33 attempts, gaining 60 yards in three league games.

John Petty, Purdue's 212-pound fullback, is another. His punts have averaged 37 yards in five games and he has gained 282 yards in 88 rushing efforts, an average of 3.2 yards. In addition, he leads the Boilermakers in scoring with 32 points.

Indiana Star—Indiana's Hal Hursh is another star who is even better than the drum-beaters say. Hursh leads the league in passing, completing 22 of 45 passes for 327 yards in three conference contests, an average of 109 yards a game by air. Hursh ranks third in punting with a 38.6 average, eclipsed only by Scott and Franck.

Bruce Smith of Minnesota has the best average per running try in conference competition, getting 6.1 yards each time in 34 times with the ball. Bill De Corrent of Northwestern is close behind, averaging six yards a try. . . . Ohio State's Charley Anderson, negro end, leads in pass-receiving with 10 catches for 162 yards in four league games. . . . Verne Astroth, Illinois back, rates better for two games, however, having caught seven for 100 yards.

Harmon vs. Minnesota—Minnesota is one team that still has to see Tommy Harmon as an All-America back. . . . The Michigan ace hopes to show them how good he is when the two undefeated and untied teams meet Saturday. . . . Minnesota beat Michigan, 7 to 6, in 1938, when sophomore Harmon's fumble set up the Gopher touchdown. . . . Last year Minnesota won again, 20 to 7, while Harmon was bottled almost all the way.

Illinois leads Northwestern in their 33-game series which will be renewed Saturday. . . . The Illini has won 17, Northwestern 13 and three ended in ties. . . . Purdue which meets Fordham this week in New York has a fine eastern intersectional record at stake. . . . The Boilermakers have won eight of 13 games against the east, one of the games ending in a tie.

Ace Grid Guards Appear Plentiful in 1940 Season

By HERB BARKER
New York, Nov. 6.—(AP)—Maybe it's just a case of double vision, but every time a fellow spots one potential All-America football guard this year, another one springs to sight at the same spot.

Not often, if ever, in the past have there been such guard combinations as Bob Suffridge and Ed Molinski of Tennessee; Warren Alfons and Ed Schwartzkopf of Nebraska; Lou Conti and Howard Dunbar of Cornell; Ernest Mills and Nicky Arillo of Auburn. You might add Duke's pair of Alex Winterson and Mike Karmazin, for the Durham outfit has been moving along ever since these two tackles were installed as regular guards.

Molinski, an All-America last year, played well last week against Louisiana State, but most observers agreed that Suffridge, back in his 1938 sophomore form, was the outstanding lineman of the field.

Alfons and Schwartzkopf both played plenty of football against Oklahoma. Schwartzkopf was a distinct menace as he shifted through to break up Oklahoma's behind-the-line passes.

Trapped Twice—Marshall Foch Robnett, Texas A. & M.'s leading guard candidate, was trapped twice in the early stages of the Arkansas game, but more than made up for those lapses with a bang-up performance the rest of the way. He played 55 minutes and recovered two Razorback fumbles.

After Eddie Aderson, Iowa coach, watched Tom Melton of Purdue in action, he said the Boilermaker was the "best guard I've seen."

Among the ends, Dave Rankin, veteran Purdue wingman, was a standout, as was big Bill Johnson on bleak King Island. Then last year there was Juneau's "Gold Bowl."

This year Anchorage comes forward with the "Snow Bowl" football game.

The contest was played October 13 on a snow covered field marked

GREENBERG WINS BASEBALL AWARD FOR FINE SEASON

BY TOM SILER

Chicago, Nov. 6.—(AP)—It was a happy day for all concerned when the Detroit master minds finally decided to shift Hank Greenberg, with his consent, from first base to the outfield.

Big Henry said that the move suited him if it would help the team, and it did help the Tigers emerge as a surprise American League flag-winner without hurting the Tiger slugger at all.

Greenberg's splendid year at the plate and acceptable work in the outfield moved the Baseball Writers Association of America to vote him the "most valuable player" of the year, the same honor he received in 1935.

Hank blasted 41 home runs and knocked in 150 runs, leading the league in both respects, his late-season slugging winning many important games for the club in the feverish pennant battle.

A committee of 24 writers, representing the association, gave Greenberg 292 points, which included 16 first-place votes. Each vote for first counted 14 points, a second place vote counted nine, third place eight and so on down to one point for 10th place.

Feller Is Second—Bob Feller's 27 mound victories for Cleveland brought him second place with 222 points and six first-place votes. Only two pitchers—Walter Johnson and Lefty Grove—ever won the award. Joe DiMaggio of New York, the 1939 winner, dropped to third with 151 points. Buck Newsom, Detroit pitcher, and Lou Boudreau, Cleveland shortstop, ranked next in order with 120 and 119 points, each getting one first-place ballot. Jimmy Fox, only three-time winner of the "most valuable" designation, ranked sixth with 110 points.

Other Points—Other points were divided as follows: Schoolboy Rowe, Detroit, 62; Rudy York, Detroit, who succeeded Greenberg at first base, 61; Ray Radcliff, St. Louis, 55; Luke Appling, Chicago, 54; Roy Weatherly, Cleveland, 34; Dick Bartel, Detroit, 26; Joe Kuhel, Chicago, 18; Sid Hudson, Washington, and Ted Williams, Boston, 16 each; and Barney McCosky, Detroit, 11.

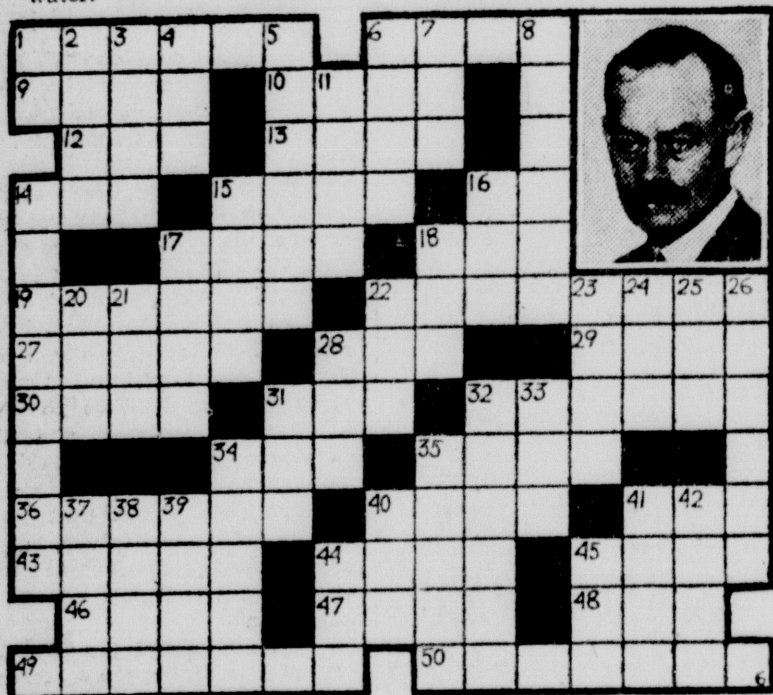

Ernie Bonham, New York, eight; Walt Judnich, St. Louis, six; Johnny Babich, Philadelphia
